

Summer ministry student position

Chester United Baptist Church is in search for a summer ministry student.

The successful candidate must be in post-secondary school and returning to school full-time in September. He or she must be committed to the Christian faith and to the sharing of God's holy ways in words and actions. They must be able to work independently and under the direction of the Christian Education committee in cooperation with the pastor. The successful candidate must be organized and self-disciplined, creative and motivated by love for people of all ages. Vulnerable sector check through the RCMP and first aid training are necessary.

Job Description

The successful candidate will be in a leadership role for the summer ministries serving both the church and the surrounding communities. The employee will be responsible for promoting and leading spiritual and social activities for toddlers through to seniors while striving to provide activities that allow for the church community to interact with surrounding communities.

Job Expectations

Working with the pastor and Christian education committee to assist in various ministries some of which could include: Vacation Bible school, developing programming and/or organizing activities for toddlers to seniors, volunteering at Shoreham Village nursing home and Bonny Lea Farm, participating in the Sunday worship service, taking a leadership position in organizing and running fundraisers. Flexibility in hours is important and the successful candidate will need to be available every Sunday morning. At the conclusion of the summer ministry a written report will be submitted to the Christian Education committee detailing your programming and your perceived results.

Please send your letter of application and resume to: chesterubc@gmail.com

In the subject line please put: "Summer ministry student position".

Receipt of application closes April 30, 2019.